August 30, 1985

Dear Mr. Weisberg:

I trust that you received my previous letter to you of August 16th, along with which I enclosed a check for $33.75 and ordered four of your books.

Enclosed are some updates that might be of interest to you. You may be right about Hugh McDonald, i.e., he is too cleaver to let me get to the bottom of his allegations. He sure seems to be avoiding me, and I've written to him via his publisher three times. However, he has not had time to receive my last communication.

Very truly yours,

Richard A. Landkamer
